

Orlando FSDO FAAS Team presents:

Prevention of Loss of Control and the PEGASAS Project

This seminar will consist of two presentations. Our first presentation will cover a very topical issue, Causes and Prevention of Loss of Control in Flight, a common cause of GA sector accidents. Captain Greg Fox, the presenter, is currently the Director of Safety at FIT Aviation. He holds a MS degree in Aviation Safety, and has an extensive background including the first Director of Flight Safety for the Jamaica CAA. Our second presentation, will include a safety report on the status of "FAA Center of Excellence for General Aviation (PEGASAS)". The presenter, Dr. Steve Cusick is the Director of PEGASAS at Florida Institute of Technology. He is a former Navy Captain, and Flight Instructor. He is the co-author of a recent textbook entitled 'Commercial Aviation Safety'.
